As endorsed by the OAS on October 3rd and supported by the <sup>OAS</sup> resolution of October 23rd, Surveillance <sup>OF CUBA</sup> has been continued in the <sup>absence the verification of the evidence</sup> light of the introduction of offensive weapons and the <sup>establishment</sup> safeguards against <sup>their</sup> reintroduction, and <sup>such</sup> <sup>surveillance was</sup> the absence of their removal. Until better means are available this surveillance must continue and all necessary action be taken to assure its effectiveness.
